Emergency Departmental Meeting on 15th May 2020

University of Calcutta, notification dated 10/5/20 mandates students of 6th semester to appear in end semester examinations after a month of opening of the university. The tentative date of opening of the academic institutions is the 10th June 2020.

Moreover, it was not possible to conduct regular classes of students since 13th March 2020 for the 6th semester due to National lockdown.

In view of above, an emergency departmental meeting will be held tomorrow, 15th May 2020, at 7pm to discuss the following agenda:-

- To design online examination for 6th semester students within 31st May 2020 and report on the efficacy of the online education imparted during COVID-19.

All faculty Members are requested to attend.
