Objective :

The primary objective of the Shakespeare Birthday Celebration, held on the 23rd of April, was to honor the legacy of William Shakespeare through a collaborative event involving New Alipore College, Scottish Church College, and Women's Christian College. The event aimed to engage students and faculty in a cultural and educational experience, promoting the appreciation of Shakespeare's works through innovative adaptations, acting, and singing. Additionally, the event sought to foster inter-college camaraderie and provide a platform for creative expression.

Outcome: The celebration was a resounding success, marked by an afternoon of fun, revelry, and artistic excellence. The midsummer magic was palpable, with participants showcasing their labor of love through brilliant performances and creative interpretations of Shakespearean characters. The event highlighted the participants' talents in acting, singing, and costume design, creating a vibrant and immersive atmosphere. The collaboration between the colleges was seamless, and the enthusiastic participation of students and staff contributed to the event's overall success. The heartfelt thanks extended by the Dept of English at New Alipore College underscored the collective effort and support that made this celebration possible.
