PURPOSE: A Nation is generally more overtly political than an ethnic group. Nations are usually socially constructed and historically contingent. On the occasion of the birth anniversary of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose, the Department sought to have a lively interaction on the concept of 'Nation' and its multiple interpretations.

PARTICIPATION - Above 110

OUTCOME – Since Bose, Gandhi and Tagore, all form a part of our undergraduate syllabus, the presentations by the four resource persons proved to be very interesting and insightful for students and helped them to gather greater knowledge about these three national leaders and their divergent perspectives.
